

Homebuying Essentials Presentation

Thinking about buying a home?

This presentation breaks down the homebuying process from getting financially ready and making an offer to closing. Understand the costs, professionals, questions, and common pitfalls along the way. Leave with a clearer picture of where to start and what your next step should be.

Julie Maloney is a Business Development Representative with Flying S Title & Escrow, helping connect real estate professionals and homebuyers with tools, resources, and education. A dedicated community leader and longtime basketball official, Julie is passionate about serving and supporting Western Montana.
